Modern Learning Formats

WHAT IT IS

Taking a whole team out for two days can kill a startup; two hours a week will not. The formats we use instead of, or alongside, full training days: task-based mentoring programs (usually 3–5 task cycles per goal), mentoring and shadowing, immersive programs (a 16-hour course split into four half-days with tasks in between), cohort courses, micro-sessions of up to two hours, and our podcast.

AT A GLANCE

Audience	HR, founders, leaders of teams that cannot stop working to learn
Led by	Kate Hobler

WHO IS IT FOR?

- People need to learn and there is no time to train them.
- Two-day trainings drop out of the calendar with every urgent topic.
- Knowledge fades before anyone uses it.
- Everyone learns alone, from random sources.

WHAT YOU GET

The client receives:

- a learning format that fits the rhythm of work,
- knowledge in portions that can be applied at once,
- people who learn together and from each other,
- a lower cost of absence from work.

Priced after an initial conversation; the price depends on the number of people covered.
